Code of Conduct for Participants in Events Organized by the ELCIC¹

“Code of Conduct”

In the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC), we are committed to being a church that welcomes all of God’s people in a safe and accepting environment.

In the context of 2019, we are increasingly aware of sexual harassment as a result of the #metoo movement along with its #churchtoo counterpart. We are also aware of the systemic racism in our country as expressed through government programs such as Residential Schools and the Sixties Scoop. We are conscious of other forms of racism as expressed through movements like #BlackLivesMatter. We are aware of ageism towards both the young and the old and ableism that is focused towards a wide range of different abilities. We are aware of ongoing discrimination towards members of the LGBTQ2+ community and we have a growing awareness of diversity in gender identity and gender expression. As we seek to work with our neighbours of other faiths we are aware of the discrimination that they face.

Our church has adopted the following understanding of our commitment to upholding dignity.

This church upholds the dignity of all people. We recognize the image of Christ in every person and serve that person as Christ himself. In meeting diverse people, we begin with a core sense of respect for the value of each person as a unique child of God.²

This is why we are creating this Code of Conduct for all ELCIC events including task force and committee meetings, council meetings, conventions and other national events.

Expected Behaviors by Participants in Events Organized by the ELCIC

- Treat all persons fairly and with respect, courtesy, and dignity during events including break and meal times.
- Behave respectfully towards others and do not misuse personal or professional relationships.
- Be sensitive to cultural and social differences and practices, and careful in your use of language that may be disrespectful or demeaning.
- Do not cross boundaries set by others regarding their personal space. If someone indicates “No,” even without words, respect it.
- Do not engage in behaviors such as bullying, harassment, sexual abuse, or sexual harassment.
- Do not make false accusations against people for your own advantage.
- Commit to working with the process outlined even if you are the subject of a complaint.

¹ This Code of Conduct does not supercede existing policies for Rostered Clergy such as Sexual Abuse or Harassment or Manual on Discipline.

ELCIC Preparation for all events

- Before the start of the ELCIC event, a minimum of two people, preferably of different genders and with an understanding of and sensitivity to diversity, are appointed by the event organizer to form the Complaint Handling Committee (CHC). The CHC members will receive instructions from the event organizer on this Code of Conduct and the procedures to follow.
- At the beginning of the event, the organizers shall remind all participants about the Code of Conduct. The CHC should be introduced at the first session. The attention of the participants shall be drawn to the Code of Conduct principles and the commitment of the ELCIC to uphold them.

What action should be taken when someone violates the code of conduct?

The procedures to follow are in harmony with Matthew 18:15–17. In the case of criminal behavior the matter should be referred directly to the police.

Procedure:

1. An individual who experiences or witnesses a violation of the Code of Conduct should speak directly to the subject of complaint in as timely a manner as possible, pointing out the violation in a reasonable manner and requesting that it stop/not be repeated.
 2. If there is no resolution, or if the complainant is not comfortable speaking directly to the subject of complaint, the complainant (including a third party complainant) should speak to a member of the CHC, who will discuss with them potential next steps.
 3. If the complainant decides to begin a formal complaint process, the complainant should fill out the Complaint Form available at the event. The Complaint Form is also available at "<http://elcic.ca/Documents/documents/ELCICEventComplaintFormFILLABLE.pdf>."
 4. During the event the complainant should hand the completed Complaint Form to a member of the CHC.
 5. After the event, the complainant should send the Complaint Form to the ELCIC Complaints Response Team (CRT) at complaints@elcic.ca. Complaints may be registered up to 60 days following the completion of an Event organized by the ELCIC.
- All complaints will be carefully investigated in a time-sensitive manner. Wherever possible, the CHC or the CRT will meet privately and separately with the subject of complaint and the complainant. Complaints will be dealt with in a confidential manner.
 - For the complainant, pastoral care and support should be made available. In cases where the complainant wishes to consider reporting the incident to the relevant legal and/or ecclesial authorities, they shall be offered support and assistance in considering such report. However, if the complainant decides to pursue legal action against the subject of complaint, it shall be done by the complainant independent of the ELCIC.
 - For the subject of complaint, pastoral care and support should be made available. The CHC may remove the subject of complaint from the meeting or from positions where the offense could be repeated if the CHC determines it is reasonable to do so.

Working Definitions

(Adapted from the Lutheran World Federation (LWF) Code of Conduct)

Bullying

Bullying is the use of force or coercion to abuse or intimidate others. The behavior can be habitual and involve an imbalance of social or physical power. It can include verbal harassment or threat, physical assault or coercion and may be directed repeatedly towards particular victims, perhaps on grounds of race religion, gender, sexuality, or ability.

Complainant

The person making a complaint of a violation of the Code of Conduct by the ELCIC. This may include a third party, someone who has witnessed a violation.

Complaint Handling Committee (CHC).

The individuals appointed at an event organized by the ELCIC to receive and review complaints.

Discrimination

Discrimination means exclusion of, treatment of, or action against an individual based on social status, race, ethnicity, color, religion, gender including gender identity and gender expression, sexual orientation, age, marital status, national origin, political affiliation or disability.

ELCIC Complaints Response Team (CRT)

The team at the National Office appointed to handle complaints after events organized by the ELCIC have completed.

Event organizer

Usually a National Office Staff Person or an Officer of this church.

Harassment

Harassment means any unwelcome comment or behavior that is offensive, demeaning, humiliating, derogatory, or any other inappropriate behavior that fails to respect the dignity of an individual.

Sexual harassment

Sexual harassment means any unwelcome sexual advance, comment, expressed or implied sexual demand, touch, joke, gesture, or any other communication or conduct of a sexual nature, whether verbal, written or visual, by any person to another individual within the scope of work. Sexual harassment may be directed at members of any gender and includes harassment based on sexual orientation and gender identity.

Sexual abuse

Sexual abuse is actual or threatened physical intrusion of a sexual nature, including inappropriate touching, by force or under unequal or coercive conditions.

Subject of Complaint

The person about whom a complaint is made for violating the Code of Conduct.

Zero tolerance

The principle and practice of not tolerating any instance of sexual abuse, harassment, bullying and discrimination in all of our meetings and conferences and applying a clear procedure for breaches or violations.

Guidelines for Members of the Complaint Handling Committee

1. Individuals or groups of individuals may come to you with concerns about how to handle a violation of the Code of Conduct. Your initial response is to listen to the complainant or to arrange a mutually agreeable time and place for a meeting. Such meetings should be conducted in private but in a public space.
2. Options for you to consider in dealing with a complaint are:
 - a. To encourage the complainant to speak directly to the subject of complaint.
 - b. To be willing to go with the complainant to speak directly to the subject of complaint.
 - c. To encourage the complainant to fill in a Confidential Complaint Form, and then to speak in private with the subject of complaint.
3. You will need to exercise your caring discretion to help the complainant choose which avenue to pursue.
4. In cases involving what you know to be or which might be criminal behavior the matter should be reported by the complainant directly to the police.
5. Remember you are part of a team. Use the other CHC team member(s) as a sounding board. You may decide which one of you will speak to the subject of complaint or you may go together. You may also speak to the event organizer for assistance.
6. In any case, do your best to provide pastoral care and support to both the complainant and the subject of complaint. With the permission of the complainant or the subject of complaint you may ask others at the event to provide pastoral care or support.
7. Keep written notes of the actions you take and submit them, along with the original complaint form to the event organizer for confidential management.
8. If the event ends before the matter is settled, forward the Complaint Form and your notes to the ELCIC Complaint Response Team for follow up.
