FEEDBACK SHEET

First Draft of a Proposed ELCIC Social Statement on Human Sexuality

Thank you for taking the time to review the First Draft of a Proposed ELCIC Social Statement on Human Sexuality.

As you review the draft statement, you are asked to consider that:

- The words contained within a social statement are words we hold in common as a church faithful to Christ.
- The social statement should be clear, understandable and brief.
- A social statement is a guiding document, not a policy document.
- A document is not a social statement until it is approved by delegates at a National Convention.

The Human Sexuality Task Force is seeking to gather the wisdom of many, and as such, your specific and succinct comments are appreciated. We uphold your right to say what you feel needs to be said. The Task Force will read all the feedback received.

We invite your feedback and response to this first draft!

This First Draft of the Proposed ELCIC Social Statement on Human Sexuality seeks to gather together what it is that we as a church can say in common about sexuality.

Would you suggest changes to this first draft in order for this to happen? If so, please indicate what proposed changes you would suggest (including suggestions for alternate wording).
(Please add additional sheets if required.)

Do you feel there are any themes or aspects of human sexuality missing from this draft statement? If so, please indicate your suggestions (including suggestions for alternate wording if required).
