

Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada

Employment Agreement Interim Ordained Minister

THIS AGREEMENT MADE BETWEEN:

Name of the Congregation
(herein called "Congregation")

OF THE FIRST PART,
-and-

Name of the Interim Ordained Minister
(herein called "Interim Ordained Minister")

OF THE SECOND PART,

WHEREAS the Congregation is a member congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada ("ELCIC") and is a member of the _____ ("Synod");

AND WHEREAS the Congregation requires an interim ordained minister on the Roster or eligible to be received on the Roster of the Synod to advance and nourish the faith of the Congregation, to administer the Sacraments and proclaim the Word of God;

AND WHEREAS the Interim Ordained Minister is an ordained minister on the Roster of the Synod and/or the Interim Ordained minister is eligible to be employed as an ordained minister by the Congregation;

AND WHEREAS the employment of the Interim Ordained Minister is conditional upon the Bishop of the Synod providing a Letter of Certification to the employment;

IN CONSIDERATION of the above and in further consideration of the mutual promises and covenants set forth, this Employment agreement ("Agreement") witnesses that the parties agree as follows:

PREREQUISITES TO EMPLOYMENT

1. This employment contract and the employment of the Interim Ordained Minister are conditional upon:
 - a. a Letter of Certification to the employment being provided by the Bishop of the Synod prior to the commencement of the Interim Ordained Minister's employment by the Congregation;
 - b. the Interim Ordained Minister being eligible for and remaining on the Roster of the Synod;
 - c. the Interim Ordained Minister providing to the Congregation a current (and satisfactory to the Congregation) Child Abuse Registry Check (if available in the province(s) in which the Interim Ordained Minister has resided in the past three (3) years) and Criminal Records Check which includes a Vulnerable Sector or Child Intervention Check (the "Checks") prior to starting the employment. If any of the Checks reveal a record, the Interim Ordained Minister must provide the Congregation with a fingerprint-based Criminal Record Check (including the Vulnerable Sector Check); and
 - d. the Interim Ordained Minister, after being provided the ELCIC Sexual Abuse or Harassment Policy ("Policy"), agreeing to review and abide by the Policy, and signing the Acknowledgement Form that is part of the Policy and returning such to the Synod office.

ONGOING OBLIGATIONS OF THE ORDAINED MINISTER & THE CONGREGATION

2. a. During and continuing throughout the employment, the Interim Ordained Minister accepts that the following ongoing obligations are required to maintain the employment:
 - i. the Interim Ordained Minister must remain in good standing on the Roster of the Synod;
 - ii. the Interim Ordained Minister must conduct the Interim Ordained Minister's affairs in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the ELCIC and the Synod;
 - iii. the Interim Ordained Minister must immediately notify the Congregation if the Interim Ordained Minister is removed from the Roster of the Synod or if the privileges of the Interim Ordained Minister as a minister on the Roster of the Synod are suspended or terminated;

- iv. depending on the length of the employment the Congregation shall be entitled to require the Interim Ordained Minister to provide current Checks satisfactory to the Congregation (including fingerprint-based Checks) once every three years at the Congregation's expense, and the Interim Ordained Minister shall comply with such requirement;
 - v. depending on the length of the employment the Interim Ordained Minister to provide the Congregation with certification of participation in 'Healthy Boundaries' training every five years; and
 - vi. the Interim Ordained Minister agrees that the onus is on the Interim Ordained Minister to advise the Congregation immediately if there is any charge or conviction under the Criminal Code of Canada.
- b. Throughout the employment the Congregation accepts the following ongoing obligations to the Interim Ordained Minister:
- i. to ensure that the compensation benefits agreed to, including vacation and paid holidays are provided to the Interim Ordained Minister;
 - ii. to provide the Interim Ordained Minister a place to work to make sure the Interim Ordained Minister has access to the workplace;
 - iii. to provide the Interim Ordained Minister the tools and equipment needed to perform the Interim Ordained Minister's functions;
 - iv. to make sure the Interim Ordained Minister's working conditions are safe; and
 - v. to treat the Interim Ordained Minister with respect and make sure the Interim Ordained Minister is not harassed or discriminated against.

REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS

- 3. a. If the employment of the Interim Ordained Minister is other than full-time specify the percentage of employment compared to full-time: _____%.
- b. The Congregation shall compensate the Interim Ordained Minister with a salary which includes, if applicable, housing allowance hereinafter "Salary" and benefits which include:

- i. please check ONE of the following:
- an initial Salary (determined after consideration of the synodical salary guidelines) of $_____ per annum paid in instalments;
or
 - an initial Salary (determined after consideration of the synodical salary guidelines) of $_____ per month paid in instalments;
or
 - an initial Salary (determined after consideration of the synodical salary guidelines for part-time interim ministers) specifically

_____;
- as long as the interim employment continues the Salary shall be reviewed annually;
- ii. membership, when eligible, in the ELCIC Pension Plan sponsored by ELCIC Group Services Inc.;
 - iii. membership, when eligible, ELCIC Group Benefits Plans administered by ELCIC Group Services Inc.;
 - iv. participation in ELCIC Programs including the Continuing Education Plan;
 - v. vacation in accordance with the approved policies;
 - vi. professional expenses paid by the Congregation in accordance with the approved policies;
 - vii. moving expenses, when applicable, including travel paid by the Congregation; specific details are as follows:

_____;
 - viii. reasonable expense reimbursement, not otherwise provided for, incurred in attending conventions and other official meetings at which the Interim Ordained Minister's attendance is required.

- c. The Interim Ordained Minister acknowledges and agrees that the ELCIC Pension Plan, ELCIC Group Benefit Plans, and any ELCIC Programs can be changed from time to time and any such change shall not constitute a fundamental change to the terms of the employment when the Interim Ordained Minister is provided with thirty (30) days' advance notice of the change.
- d. If the Congregation is providing the Interim Ordained Minister with a residence for the personal use of the Interim Ordained Minister and members of the Interim Ordained Minister's immediate family during the term of the Interim Ordained Minister's employment, the terms shall be as set out in a Residence Agreement and shall be attached to this agreement as Schedule "A".
- e. The remuneration provided under this Agreement shall be subject to such deductions as the Congregation is from time to time required to make pursuant to law, government regulation, for benefits or by consent of the Interim Ordained Minister.

SCOPE OF POSITION & COOPERATION WITH SYNOD

- 4.
 - a. Neither the ELCIC nor the Synod is the Interim Ordained Minister's employer, but the nature of this ministry and the Interim Ordained Minister's employment requires that the Interim Ordained Minister work and cooperate with the Synod and the Bishop of the Synod for the greater good of the ELCIC, the Synod, and Congregation.
 - b. The Interim Ordained Minister shall at all times faithfully, diligently, and to the best of the Interim Ordained Minister's skill, ability, experience and talents, perform the Interim Ordained Minister's duties.
 - c. During the term of this Agreement the Interim Ordained Minister shall not participate in any other business, occupation, or become an employee or agent of any corporation, firm or individual, except with the consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, of the Congregation and after the Interim Ordained Minister has consulted with the Bishop of the Synod.
 - d. The Interim Ordained Minister shall not participate in any activity, be it professional or personal, that is in conflict with the Interim Ordained Minister's duties to the Congregation.

CONFIDENTIALITY

- 5. The Interim Ordained Minister acknowledges and agrees that the Interim Ordained Minister has a duty of confidentiality to the Congregation and that the duty includes maintaining the confidentiality of confidential information.

“Confidential Information” is defined to include but it is not limited to: information with respect to the financial, business and human resources management of the Congregation. Accordingly, the Interim Ordained Minister undertakes and agrees not to disclose Confidential Information to any person not authorized to receive the Confidential Information without the express written permission of the Congregation, and that the Interim Ordained Minister shall use the Interim Ordained Minister’s best efforts to maintain the secrecy of all of the Confidential Information.

The Interim Ordained Minister agrees that this duty of confidentiality survives the termination of this Agreement and the Interim Ordained Minister’s employment.

TERM

6. The employment of the Interim Ordained Minister by the Congregation shall commence on the _____ day of _____, 20__ and shall continue until such time as a regularly called Ordained Minister begins his/her ministry and at that time the employment shall be terminated in accordance with this Agreement.

NOTICE OF TERMINATION NOT FOR CAUSE

7.
 - a. Notwithstanding any termination of employment provisions set out in the Constitution and Bylaws of the Congregation, the Synod, or the ELCIC, in the event of a not for cause termination, the respective rights of the Congregation and the Interim Ordained Minister shall be those set out in this article seven.
 - b. The employment of the Interim Ordained Minister may be terminated by the Congregation at any time without cause (which includes but is not limited to when a regularly called Ordained Minister begins his/her ministry) upon the Congregation providing to the Interim Ordained Minister the following:
 - i. written notice or pay in lieu of notice (the “Notice Period”) of thirty calendar days or the minimum termination notice required by the applicable employment standards legislation, whichever is the greater;
 - ii. the Notice Period may, at the discretion of the Congregation, be provided by way of working notice or payment of the equivalent Salary in lieu of notice or a combination thereof;

- iii. where the Notice Period is in whole or in part provided by way of pay in lieu of notice, the Congregation may, in its sole discretion, provide such pay in lieu of notice in a lump sum or through continuation of payment of the Interim Ordained Minister's Salary through payroll;
 - iv. to the extent required by the applicable employment standards legislation, if the Interim Ordained Minister is entitled to severance pay in addition to the Notice Period, the Congregation shall provide the required severance pay to the Interim Ordained Minister;
 - v. if and to the extent required by the applicable employment standards legislation, the Congregation shall continue to make whatever benefit plan contributions are required to maintain the Interim Ordained Minister's benefit plans for the statutory notice period in the applicable employment standards legislation; and
 - vi. the Congregation shall also provide any other minimum rights, benefits and entitlements (if any) required by the applicable employment standards legislation to the extent that such rights, benefits and entitlements have not already been provided.
- c. The Interim Ordained Minister can terminate employment upon providing the Congregation with thirty (30) days' notice. Such notice however may be waived in whole or in part by agreement of the parties, or by the Congregation with payment to the Interim Ordained Minister of the remaining resignation notice.

TERMINATION OTHER

8. Other than in the event of a not for cause termination, the employment of the Interim Ordained Minister may be terminated for any of the reasons listed and processes provided for in the Constitution and Bylaws of the Congregation, the Synod and the ELCIC.

DISCIPLINE

9. The grounds for discipline and the disciplinary procedures set out in the Constitution and Bylaws of the ELCIC and the Manual Re Discipline for Rostered Ministers shall apply to the Interim Ordained Minister, including but not limited to disciplinary penalties such as suspension from employment and/or removal from the Roster of Interim Ordained Ministers as well as any right of appeal available to the Interim Ordained Minister with respect to such.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

10. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto as it relates to the matters set out herein and this Agreement supersedes all previous negotiations, understandings and agreements whether verbal or written with respect to any matters herein referred to. To be effective, any changes or modifications to this Agreement shall be made in writing and signed by both parties.

SEVERABILITY

11. The parties agree that in the event that any provision, clause, article, attachment herein, or part thereof, which forms part of this Agreement, is deemed void, invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions, clauses, articles, attachments or parts thereof, shall be and remain in full force and effect.

GOVERNING LAW

12. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Province [territory] of _____ and the laws of Canada as applicable.

NOTICES

13. Where by this Agreement any notice is to be or may be given by one party to the other, such notice may be personally delivered or may be given by registered mail and shall be deemed to have been effectively given if sent by registered mail, postage prepaid, correctly addressed to the party to whom such notice is to be given, and any such notice when so mailed shall be deemed to have been received four (4) days after it was mailed.

RETURN OF MATERIALS

14. All files, forms, books, materials, written correspondence, memoranda, documents, manuals, computer disks and software products in any form or media whatsoever pertaining to the affairs and interests of the Congregation that may come into the possession or control of the Interim Ordained Minister shall at all times remain the property of the Congregation. On termination of the Interim Ordained Minister's employment for any reason, the Interim Ordained Minister agrees to deliver promptly to the Congregation all such property of the Congregation in the possession of the Interim Ordained Minister or directly or indirectly under the control of the Interim Ordained Minister. The Interim Ordained Minister agrees not to make for personal or business use, reproductions or copies of any such property or other property of the Congregation.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or at common law the parties agree that the Interim Ordained Minister as original author of any sermon or other work used to minister to the Congregation shall remain the owner of the copyright and intellectual property with respect to such.

PRIVACY

15. The Congregation collects personal information about the Interim Ordained Minister:
 - a. the Interim Ordained Minister's personal information is collected, used and disclosed for the following purposes: payroll; employee benefits; statutory deductions and remittances such as income tax; general employment purposes such as calculating length of service and for information relating to the initiation, management and termination of the employment relationship;
 - b. the Congregation only discloses personal information with third parties as required and for the purposes noted above or as required or permitted by applicable law. For example, the Congregation must disclose certain personal information with the Income Tax authorities, and, with third party providers of employee benefits;
 - c. the Interim Ordained Minister is entitled to review and correct personal information the Congregation has collected about the Interim Ordained Minister by communicating with the Chair of the Congregational Council; and
 - d. by signing this Agreement the Interim Ordained Minister consents to the Congregation collecting, using and disclosing the Interim Ordained Minister's personal information as detailed above.

AGREEMENT SIGNED IN COUNTERPARTS

16. This Agreement may be executed and delivered (by original, facsimile or electronic transmission) in multiple counterparts each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

TIMING FOR ACCEPTANCE OF THE AGREEMENT

17. For this Agreement to be binding both parties are required to sign the Agreement on or before the ___ day of the month of _____, 20_____.

LEGAL ADVICE

18. The Interim Ordained Minister acknowledges that the Interim Ordained Minister has obtained, or has had an opportunity to seek, independent legal advice in connection with the negotiation and execution of this Agreement, and further acknowledges that the Interim Ordained Minister has read, understands, and agrees to be bound by all of the terms and conditions contained herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Agreement.

Chair of Congregational Council

Vice Chair of Congregational Council or other designate

(print name)

(print name)

(signature)

(signature)

(date)

(date)

Interim Ordained Minister:

Witness:

(print name)

(print name)

(signature)

(signature)

(date)

(date)