The Right Honourable Stephen Harper
Prime Minister of Canada
80 Wellington Street
Langevin Block
Ottawa ON K1A 0A2

October 26, 2011

Dear Prime Minister Stephen Harper,

On behalf of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC), I am writing to urge the Government of Canada to provide resources for the protection of victims of sexual exploitation.

Laws calling for harsh penalties are an insufficient response to the violence of exploitation. When victims are seeking to escape from danger, vulnerable people need access to, and eligibility for, a variety of social services. These services include safe, affordable housing, health care, employment referrals, language training and counselling.

In addition, I urge the Government of Canada to provide law enforcement resources for the prosecution and rehabilitation of offenders who engage in human trafficking. Without adequate resources for prosecution and rehabilitation, society will fail to protect people at risk.

Calls to address the tragedy and devastation of human trafficking have come from a variety of sources, including women's groups across Canada, the Canadian Council of Churches, the Lutheran World Federation and the United Nations. In September, 2011, our National Church Council affirmed the importance of opposing exploitation, and asked me to share these concerns with you and your government.

While no one solution can solve this complex problem, the Canadian Government's role in providing resources is an essential ingredient in supporting and protecting some of the world's most vulnerable persons.

Yours in Christ,

The Rev. Susan C. Johnson
National Bishop, Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada
