Reference and Counsel

NC-07-33 MS that the ELCIC through its National Bishop, and/or National Church Council, write to encourage the Government of Canada to develop and pass binding legislation to hold Canadian corporations accountable to Canadian laws, standards and values for their business conduct in foreign lands. Carried.

Petition that this convention reaffirm the NCC’s ruling that the motion passed by the Eastern Synod Convention in 2006 giving its congregations a local option to bless same-sex unions was ‘beyond the Synod’s constitutional authority’.

Reference and Counsel recommended no action. Chair declared motion out of order as the matter has been dealt with.

NC-07-34 MS request NCC refer this petition to the Faith, Order and Doctrine; whether God, through scripture, provides the church with authority as it pertains to the granting of same-sex blessings. Carried.

NC-07-35 MS that the NCC explore increased funding to existing Lutheran Campus Ministries across Canada, and begin the process of seeking new opportunities for emerging campus missions across the nation; including potential partnerships with The Anglican Church of Canada, Evangelical Lutheran Women and other allied faith-based corporations. Carried

NC-07-36 MS that the ELCIC through the NCC commit itself to make preparations for a global pandemic. Such preparations should include materials dealing with issues such as worship practices, congregations as community resources, both individual and corporate self-care, being good neighbours and by facilitating training of church leaders in the use of such resources.

M/S to amend, by adding, should be in conjunction with local, provincial, and national health agencies. Amendment Carried.

NC-07-36 Amended motion to read. That the ELCIC through the National Church Council commit itself to make preparations for a global pandemic. Such preparations should in conjunction with local, provincial, and national health agencies include materials dealing with issues such a worship practices, congregations as community resources, both individual and corporate self-care, being good neighbours, and by facilitating training of church leaders in the use of such resources. Moved as amended. Carried.

NC-07-37 MS That the NCC and this convention express our thanks to the ELW for their continued support of the ELCIC.

That the Eleventh Biennial Convention express its gratitude to all who have worked to enable this convention to do its work, to make our stay in Winnipeg memorable, and to be in mission for others:

- the Local Arrangements Committee: Norm Coull, Debbie Beyers, Karen Mattern, Mark Irvine, Rev. Kolleen Karlowsky-Clark, Judy Long, Greg Schwenneker, Ernie Buhr, Rolly Otto, Kelly Speak, Gerda Coull, Gertrude Steciuk; for their planning and tireless work;
- the many volunteers who cheerfully greeted, ushered, “stewarded”, directed and transported us, and counted our offerings;
- the Rev. Mark Harris and Rev. Tanya Ramer, our convention chaplains, and the worship and music leaders, particularly Mark Sedio, our convention musician, for renewing us through worship;
- National Office administrative staff, quietly coming and going: Gloria McNabb, Tanya Watts, Barb Wiebe, Kristen Guy, Rick Natividad, Myra Golebioski, Trina Gallop, and Faye Schultz;
- National Office program staff: Ryan Andersen, Monica Denk, Paul Gehrs, Paul Johnson, Kelvin Krieger;
- University of Manitoba Special Functions Office and Sandy Gibson and staff;
- Convention committees: Minutes, Elections, Registration and Credentials (and, if we may be so bold...Reference and Counsel); and

That the Eleventh Biennial Convention expresses its appreciation for the faithful leadership of:

The members of our National Church Council

- our National Bishop, The Rev. Raymond Schultz (retiring)
- our Vice-President, Roger Kingsley
- our Secretary, Donald Storch
- our Treasurer, Norman Thompson (retiring)

That the Eleventh Biennial Convention expresses its thanks and gratitude to our Triune God in whom we have life and breath and from whom come all our gifts. Blessed be our God! Carried.

The remaining petitions presented to Reference and Counsel have expired.
