The Magazine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada

Job Posting for Editor of Canada Lutheran

Canada Lutheran, the award-winning national publication of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC), is seeking an energetic and creative journalist or communications professional with a commitment to excellence for the position of Editor.

The successful candidate will have a post-secondary degree or diploma in journalism, public relations or communications and a minimum of five years experience with editing a publication with paid-circulation.

The Editor will report to the ELCIC's Director of Communications and be responsible for overseeing the content and theme development of Canada Lutheran's eight annual issues, including writing, editing and seeking freelance writers when appropriate.

This position is a part-time position and requires the Editor to be available for approximately 100 hours per issue of the publication.

As this position serves the Evangelical Lutheran community, candidates must have an understanding of the Lutheran faith, its people and leadership as well as the relationships of the ELCIC with its ecumenical partners.

Please forward your cover letter and resume along with salary expectations by May 14, 2012 to:
