

DIACONAL SUNDAY

February 23, 2020
Seventh Sunday after the Epiphany

Diakonia

The ELCIC celebrates the last Sunday of February as Diaconal Sunday, in order to raise awareness of diakonia (service) as a vital dimension of the church's witness and of rostered diaconal ministry as a valuable expression of church leadership.

The Lutheran World Federation (LWF) describes diakonia as "an intrinsic element of being Church and cannot be reduced to an activity by certain committed persons or made necessary by external social conditions. Diakonia is deeply related to what the Church celebrates in its liturgy and announces in its preaching. In the same way, liturgy and proclamation relate to diakonia. The communion (koinonia) of the Church is made visible through its three main expressions." (from Diakonia in Context, LWF page elcic.ca/Documents/documents/DiakonaiinContextDMD_Diakonia.pdf)

What is your call?

We are all called to serve our neighbours, by showing respect, journeying in accompaniment, addressing needs and seeking justice. Do to others as you would have them do to you. (Luke 6:31)
How are you called to serve today?

If you are interested in considering a call to rostered ministry, talk to a deacon, pastor or synod leader.

DIACONAL SUNDAY

February 23, 2020
Seventh Sunday after the Epiphany

Diakonia

The ELCIC celebrates the last Sunday of February as Diaconal Sunday, in order to raise awareness of diakonia (service) as a vital dimension of the church's witness and of rostered diaconal ministry as a valuable expression of church leadership.

The Lutheran World Federation (LWF) describes diakonia as "an intrinsic element of being Church and cannot be reduced to an activity by certain committed persons or made necessary by external social conditions. Diakonia is deeply related to what the Church celebrates in its liturgy and announces in its preaching. In the same way, liturgy and proclamation relate to diakonia. The communion (koinonia) of the Church is made visible through its three main expressions." (from Diakonia in Context, LWF page elcic.ca/Documents/documents/DiakonaiinContextDMD_Diakonia.pdf)

What is your call?

We are all called to serve our neighbours, by showing respect, journeying in accompaniment, addressing needs and seeking justice. Do to others as you would have them do to you. (Luke 6:31)
How are you called to serve today?

If you are interested in considering a call to rostered ministry, talk to a deacon, pastor or synod leader.