Orientation

The Committee on Conduct of Elections will meet with the National Secretary Murray Walter and (ELCIC Staff Person) on (date and time) in (place) to review procedures for elections of Vice-President, National Church Council (NCC), Group Services Inc. (GSI), Court of Adjudication, and Nominating Committee for the 2013 National Convention.

A meeting with the Local Arrangements Committee Ballot Counters shall take place at (time, place and with whom)

Local Arrangement Ballot Counters shall assist in the counting of ballots for elections only.

Other ballots, such as a request from the floor for a secret ballot, shall be counted by the Committee on Conduct of Elections.

In addition, the Committee on Conduct of Elections shall supervise the counting of red and green card votes on the floor of convention.

Procedures

1. The (assigned place) will be used by the Committee of Elections and, as specified above, the Local Arrangements Committee (LAC) ballot counters. The LAC ballot counters will be supervised by a member(s) of the Committee on Conduct of Elections.

2. The number of ballots and the number of names on ballots will determine how the Committee must organize itself and break up the work for each set of ballots.

3. Suggested Procedure:

- a. Lay out ballots in alphabetical order across several tables
- b. Count # of ballots per person and record on separate sheet

- d. Add up total # of ballots cast (this # also includes spoiled ballots)
- e. Verify (responsibility of a member of the Elections Committee)

All reports should include the description of the ballot, the total number of ballots cast, the number of spoiled ballots and the number required to elect. In addition, the report is to contain the names of the persons who received votes and the number of votes they received in descending order. Each category on a multiple ballot is considered a separate ballot.

Delegates may choose to vote in one category, but not in another. Separate totals for each category must be noted. A sample of the reporting required is as follows:

6. The committee will also need to prepare ballot forms for subsequent elections. This needs to be done with great care, as an improperly prepared ballot will bring delays to the convention proceedings. The ballots should also be stored on the flash drive and brought to the convention office for printing by the LAC office group.

7. The National Bishop should be notified immediately when results are available along with an indication of when the reports will be ready for distribution and when ballots will be ready for use.

10. The Chair of Convention will call for the stewards to distribute the report of the Committee on Elections following which the chair of the Committee on Conduct of Elections will be invited to present the report. Elections are declared by the chair, not by the Elections Committee.

PREAMBLE

In the name of the Triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Believing in one holy catholic and apostolic Church,

Remembering the prayer of our Lord Jesus Christ that his followers may be one,

Responding to the Holy Spirit who continues to call and gather the Church.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada hereby resolves to adopt the following constitution to govern our life and witness in our country and throughout the world.

ARTICLE I

Name and Incorporation

Section 1. This constitution has been passed pursuant to and is subject to the provisions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada Act and the corporate bylaws enacted pursuant to that Act.

Section 2. For the purposes of this constitution and accompanying administrative bylaws the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada is hereby referred to as “this church.”

ARTICLE II

Confession of Faith

Section 1. This church confesses the Triune God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—as the one true God. It proclaims the Father as Creator and Preserver; His Son, Jesus Christ, as Redeemer and Lord; and the Holy Spirit as Regenerator and Sanctifier.

Section 2. This church confesses that the gospel is the revelation of God's saving will and grace in Jesus Christ, which he imparts through Word and Sacrament. Through these means of grace the Holy Spirit creates believers and unites them with their Lord and with one another in the fellowship of the Holy Christian Church.

Section 3. This church confesses the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God, through which God still speaks, and as the only source of the church's doctrine and the authoritative standard for the faith and life of the church.

Section 4. This church subscribes to the documents of the Book of Concord of 1580 as witnesses to the way in which the Holy Scriptures have been correctly understood, explained and confessed for the sake of the gospel, namely:

- a. The Apostles', the Nicene, and the Athanasian Creeds as the chief confessions of the Christian faith;
- b. The unaltered Augsburg Confession as its basic formulation of Christian doctrine;
- c. Luther's Small Catechism as a clear summary of Christian doctrine;
- d. The Apology of the Augsburg Confession, Luther's Large Catechism, the Smalcald Articles with the Treatise, and the Formula of Concord as further witnesses to the unaltered Augsburg Confession.

ARTICLE III

Nature of the Church

Section 1. Jesus Christ is Lord of the Church. All power belongs to Him as its head. All actions of this church are to be carried out under His rule and authority.

Section 2. The Holy Spirit calls, gathers, enlightens and sanctifies the Church, which exists as congregations and synodically recognized ministries gathered for worship, witness, education and service, and as an inclusive fellowship which has its own identity and integrity. Congregations find their fulfilment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations.

Section 3. This church derives its character and its powers from its congregations, synodically recognized ministries and from its inherent nature as part of the Church universal. It regards itself as standing in the historic continuity of the communion of saints and as being an expression of that Christian fellowship in today's world.

ARTICLE IV

Mission of the Church

Section 1. The mission of this church, as an expression of the universal Church and as an instrument of the Holy Spirit, is to share the gospel of Jesus Christ with people in Canada and around the world through proclamation of the Word, celebration of the Sacraments, and through service in Christ's name.

Section 2. In seeking to achieve its mission, this church shall:

- a. Receive, establish and maintain congregations and synodically recognized ministries in which the gospel is rightly preached and the Sacraments rightly administered;
- b. Safeguard the faith and life of its congregations, synodically recognized ministries and rostered ministers, deciding all questions relating thereto on the basis of the Word of God and in accordance with its Confession of Faith;
- c. Admit persons to the roster of ordained and diaconal ministers by ordination, transfer, or consecration, and be responsible for their nurture, support and discipline;
- d. Study issues in contemporary society in the light of the Word of God and respond publicly to social and moral issues as an advocate for justice and as an agent for reconciliation;
- e. Publish materials for the education and the edification of its own members and others interested in the life of the Lutheran Church;
- f. Develop the worship life of this church, providing or recommending service books and other material for congregational and personal use;
- g. Establish church agencies and create regional synods for the administration of its programs;
- h. Have relationships with other Lutheran church bodies and with other Christian churches for the furtherance of its mission; and
- i. Estimate the financial needs of this church, and solicit and disburse funds for its program.

Section 3. In seeking to achieve its mission, this church may:

- a. Establish and maintain seminaries for the education and continuing development of rostered ministers and other church leaders;
- b. Establish and maintain, or otherwise recognize and support, schools for the education of its members and others for leadership in church and society;
- c. Establish and maintain, or otherwise recognize and support, institutions and agencies to minister to human need and in the name of Christ;

ARTICLE V

Membership

Section 1. As provided in the corporate bylaws, the membership of this church consists of member congregations and synodically recognized ministries. Baptized individuals who are members of a congregation or synodically recognized ministry (“baptized members”) shall exercise their privileges and responsibilities through participation in the congregation or synodically recognized ministry in which they are members.

Section 2. United in one Lord, one Faith and one Baptism, the baptized members of this church are to be constant in worship and in the study of the Holy Scriptures, regularly nourishing their life in Christ in the Sacrament of the Altar, presenting their children for Holy Baptism and providing for their Christian instruction. They are called by the Spirit to lead godly lives, to promote the unity and welfare of the church in the bond of peace, to proclaim the gospel and to renounce the evil one. The commitment of each baptized member to this call is to be expressed through this church, its synods and its congregations by a life of repentance, faith, prayer and the sharing of resources.

ARTICLE VI

Congregations

Section 1. A congregation of this church, the corporate existence which is recognized by this church, is a worshipping, learning, witnessing and serving community of persons baptized in the Name of the Triune God among whom the Word is proclaimed and the sacraments are administered according to the gospel.

Section 2. Each congregation shall operate in accordance with its constitution, owning its property, making decisions in regard to its programming, calling its rostered ministers after consulting with the bishop of the synod, and retaining authority in all other matters that have not been committed to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada or its synods in this constitution or by subsequent enactments.

Section 3. Reception of a congregation shall be by action of the synod on whose territory it is located. Each congregation shall, in its application for reception into this church, agree to abide loyally by the constitution, administrative bylaws and enactments of this church and those of the synod of which it becomes a part.

Section 4. Each congregation shall normally be a part of the synod on whose territory it is located.

Section 5. Congregations shall only be members of this church. Multiple memberships are prohibited.

Section 6. Congregations shall have the right to petition this church according to procedures set forth in the administrative bylaws.

Section 7. A synod, acting for this church, may exclude a congregation from the membership of this church for proper cause by the disciplinary process prescribed in the administrative bylaws. This action may be appealed to the Court of Appeal whose decision therein shall be final.

ARTICLE VII

Synodically Recognized Ministries

Section 1.
