

Canada Lutheran

The Magazine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada

Job Posting Editor, Canada Lutheran

Canada Lutheran, the award-winning national publication of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC), is seeking an energetic and creative communications professional with a commitment to excellence for the position of Editor.

The successful candidate will have a post-secondary degree or diploma in communications and a minimum of five years experience with editing a publication with paid circulation.

The Editor reports to the ELCIC's Director of Communications and Resource Generation. In conjunction with the Director of Communications, the Editor oversees the content development for Canada Lutheran's eight annual issues. This includes writing, editing, seeking freelance writers and photographers, providing input to the magazine's graphic designer, and leading a periodic review of the magazine with respect to content and design.

This position is a part-time position and requires the Editor to be available for approximately 100 hours per issue of the publication.

As this position serves the Evangelical Lutheran community, candidates must have an understanding of the Lutheran faith, its people and leadership as well as the relationships of the ELCIC with its ecumenical partners.

Please forward your cover letter and resume along with salary expectations to:

Trina Gallop Blank
Director of Communications, ELCIC
tgallop@elcic.ca

We thank all applicants but only those candidates considered for an interview will be contacted.